A Full Honorary Member shall not be required to pay an annual subscription. Full Honorary Membership status shall be ratified and endorsed by the Committee annually prior to the 1st of April of each year.

Full Intermediate Member - means a person aged between 18 years and 25 years inclusive. A Full Intermediate Member shall be entitled to hold office and can vote at any general meeting of the Club. A Full Intermediate member shall pay 50% of a Full Member annual subscription.

Junior Member - means a person up to the age of 18 years. A junior member shall not be entitled to hold office or vote at any general meeting of the Club.

Lady Member - means a female member of not less than twenty years of age and who joined the Club prior to 17 May 2016, who has the right to attend but not vote at any and all general meetings of the Club. A Lady member is not entitled to hold a position on the committee as an officer of the Club or an ordinary committee member. A Lady member shall otherwise enjoy all of the rights and privileges of a Full member of the Club. Lady Member category will not be valid after 31 March 2020. Any existing Lady Member may change to a Full Member upon payment of the relevant subscription before 31 March 2020. A Lady Member must change to a Full Member and pay the relevant subscription from 1 April 2020.

Notwithstanding this definition, the President of the Ladies committee or in her absence the Vice-President of the Ladies committee are ex-officio members of the general committee and in accordance with Rule 24 (1) of the Constitution have the right to attend and vote at committee meetings.

Lady Member Honorary - has the same meaning as Lady Member except that an Honorary Lady Member shall be appointed by the committee to be a Lady Member Honorary. A Lady Member Honorary shall not be required to pay an annual subscription.

Life Member - means a person who is either a Full member or a Lady member who shall have been elected as a Life member by not less than three fourths majority of the full members present at an annual general meeting of the Club. A Life member shall enjoy all of the rights and privileges of a Full member or Lady member as the case may be. A Life Member shall not be required to pay an annual subscription.

Member for Life - means a person who is the holder of a Member For Life Certificate. A Member for Life has the right to vote at any and all general meetings of the Club and shall enjoy all of the rights and privileges of a Full member or Lady member as the case may be. A Member For Life shall not be required to pay an annual subscription.

Member for Life (Honorary) - means a person who is the holder of an Honorary Member for Life Certificate. An Honorary Member for Life has the right to vote at any and all general meetings of the Club and shall enjoy all of the rights and privileges of a Full member or Lady member as the case may be. An Honorary Member for Life shall not be required to pay an annual subscription.

Member for Life Non Playing - means a person who is the holder of a Member for Life Certificate. A 'Member for Life Non-playing' has the right to vote at any and all general meetings of the Club but is not able enter or play in a golf competition at the Club because they no longer hold a current GA handicap. A Member for Life Non playing shall not be required to pay an annual subscription.

Social Member Honorary means a person who is nominated and approved for membership to the Club as an honorary Social Member. A Social Member Honorary shall have the right to use the Clubrooms and facilities of the Club. A Social Member Honorary shall not be required to pay an annual subscription. A Social Member Honorary shall not be entitled to hold office or vote at any general meeting of the Club. Social Member Honorary status shall be ratified and endorsed by the Committee annually prior to the 1st of April of each year.

Social Member means a person who is nominated and approved for membership to the Club as a Social member. A Social member shall have the right to use the Clubrooms and facilities of the Club and is entitled to 12 free games of social golf per annum. A social member shall not be entitled to hold office or vote at any general meeting of the Club.

(3) A person who is nominated and approved for membership in accordance with this rule is eligible to be a member of the Club on payment of the annual subscription for the relevant member class in accordance with Rule 33.

(4) Notwithstanding sub-rule (3), Foundation Members, Members for Life and Life members do not require the payment of an annual subscription.

(5) A nomination of a person for membership is to be -

- (a) made in writing specifying the class of membership sought and signed by 2 members of the Club; and
- (b) accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated; and
- (c) lodged with the public officer of the Club.

(6) The consent referred to in sub-rule (5)(b) may be endorsed on the nomination.

(7) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a nomination, the public officer is to refer the nomination to the committee.

(8) If a nomination is approved by the committee, the public officer is to -

- (a) notify the nominee, in writing, whether or not the nominee has been approved for the requested class of membership of the Club; and
- (b) on receipt of the required amount payable (if any) by the nominee as the first annual subscription, enter the nominee's name in a register of members.

(9) A member of the Club may resign by serving on the public officer a written notice of resignation.

(10) On receipt of a notice from a member of the Club under sub-rule (9), the public officer is to remove the name of the member from the register of members.

(11) A person -

(a) becomes a member of the Club when his or her name is entered in the register of members; and

(b) ceases to be a member of the Club when his or her name is removed from the register of members.

(12) Any right, privilege or obligation of a person as a member of the Club-

(a) is not capable of being transferred to another person; and

(b) terminates on the cessation of the membership.

(13) If the Club is wound up, each member of the Club, and each person who was a member of the Club within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding-up, is liable to contribute -

(a) to the assets of the Club for payment of the liabilities of the Club; and

(b) for the costs, charges and expenses of the winding-up; and

(c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves.

(14) Any liability under sub-rule (13) is not to exceed fifty dollars .

(15) Despite sub-rule (13), a former member of the Club is not liable to contribute under that sub-rule in respect of any liability of the Club incurred after he or she ceased to be a member.

(16) The committee may from time to time arrange reciprocal arrangements with any other registered golf club.

(17) Should any subscription or other debt payable to the Club by any member remain unpaid for a period of three months, the member concerned shall be deemed to have terminated his membership, but in any specific case the committee may extend the period. Termination of membership under this Rule or under Rule 35 shall be without prejudice to the liability of the member to pay any subscription or other debt then due to the Club.

7. Income and property of Club

(1) The income and property of the Club is to be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Club.

(2) No portion of the income or property of the Club is to be paid or transferred to any member of the Club unless the payment or transfer is made in accordance with this rule.

(3) The Club may -

(a) pay a servant or member of the Club-

(i) remuneration in return for services rendered to the Club, or for goods supplied to the Club, in the ordinary course of business of the servant or member; or

(ii) remuneration that constitutes a reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the servant or member for any of the objects or purposes of the Club; or

(iii) interest at a rate not exceeding 7.25% on money lent to the Club by the servant or member; or

(iv) a reasonable amount by way of rent for premises, or a part of premises, let to the Club by the servant or member; and

(b) pay a member of the committee remuneration in return for carrying out the functions of a member of the committee; and

(c) pay a member of a subcommittee remuneration in return for carrying out the functions of a member of the subcommittee; and

(d) if so requested by or on behalf of any other Club, organisation or body, appoint or nominate a member of the Club to an office in that other Club, organisation or body.

(4) Despite sub-rule (3)(a), (b) and (c), the Club is not to pay a person any amount under that sub-rule unless the committee has first approved that payment.

(5) Despite sub-rule (3)(d), the Club is not to appoint or nominate a member of the Club under that sub-rule to an office in respect of which remuneration is payable unless the Club or committee has first approved -

(a) that appointment or nomination; and

(b) the receipt of that remuneration by that member.

8. Accounts of receipts and expenditure

(1) True accounts are to be kept of the following:

(a) each receipt or payment of money by the Club and the matter in respect of which the money was received or paid;

(b) each asset or liability of the Club.

(2) The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Club at any reasonable time, and in any reasonable manner, determined by the committee.

(3) The Treasurer of the Club is to keep all accounting books, and general records and records of receipts and payments connected with the business of the Club in the form and manner the committee determines.

(4) The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Club's office or at any other place the committee determines.

9. Banking and Finance

(1) On behalf of the Club, the Treasurer of the Club is to -

(a) receive any money paid to the Club; and

(b) immediately after receiving the money, issue an official receipt in respect of the money; and

(c) cause the money to be paid into the account opened under sub-rule (2) as soon as practicable after it is received.

(2) The committee is to open with an authorised deposit-taking institution an account in the name of the Club.

(3) The committee may -

(a) receive from an authorised deposit-taking institution a cheque drawn by the Club on any of the Club's accounts with the authorised deposit-taking institution; and

(b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.

(4) Except with the authority of the committee, a payment of an amount exceeding $100 is not to be made from the funds of the Club otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Club's account.

(5) The committee may provide the treasurer with an amount of money to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions the committee may impose in relation to the expenditure.

(6) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Club's account except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the committee.

(7) A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be

(a) signed by the treasurer or, in the treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the committee the committee nominates for that purpose; and

(b) countersigned by the public officer of the Club.

(8) Notwithstanding the above, the Committee may authorise receipts and payments to be transacted electronically and establish approval processes for such transactions.

10. Auditor

(1) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Club present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Club.

(2) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under sub-rule (1), the committee is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Club as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.

(3) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.

(4) The first auditor -

(a) may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting; and

(b) if so appointed, holds office until the first annual general meeting unless earlier removed by a resolution of the members of the Club at a general meeting.

(5) If the first auditor is appointed by the committee under sub-rule (4)(a) and subsequently removed at a general meeting under sub-rule (4)(b), the members of the Club, at that general meeting, may appoint an auditor to hold office until the first annual general meeting.

(6) Except as provided in sub-rule (4)(b), the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.

(7) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the committee is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.

11. Audit of accounts

(1) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Club at least once in each financial year of the Club.

(2) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Club for a particular financial year of the Club, is to -

(a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Club; and

(b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Club present at that meeting.

(3) In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to -

(a) specify the information, if any, that he or she has required under sub-rule (5)(b) and obtained; and

(b) state whether, in his or her opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Club according to the information at his or her disposal; and

(c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Club have been observed.

(4) The public officer of the Club is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club.

(5) The auditor may -

(a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club; and

(b) require from any servant of the Club any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of his or her duties; and

(c) employ any person to assist in auditing the financial affairs of the Club; and

(d) examine any member of the committee, or any servant of the Club, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Club.

12. Annual general meeting

(1) The Club is to hold an annual general meeting each year.

(2) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the end of the financial year of the Club) the committee determines.

(3) An annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meeting that may be held in the same year.

(4) The notice convening an annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.

- (5) The ordinary business of an annual general meeting is to be as follows:
- (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the committee, auditor and servants of the Club reports on the transactions of the Club during the last preceding financial year of the Club;
 - (c) to appoint the Patron of the Club;
 - (d) to elect the officers of the Club and the ordinary committee members;
 - (e) to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration;
 - (f) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Club.
- (6) An annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with rule 14.

13. Special general meetings

- (1) The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Club at any time.
- (2) The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 20 members of the Club, is to convene a special general meeting of the Club.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting -
- (a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and
 - (b) is to be signed by each of the requisitioners; and
 - (c) is to be deposited at the office of the Club; and
 - (d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitioners.
- (4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Club, any one or more of the requisitioners may convene the meeting within 3 months after the day of the deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as the manner in which a special general meeting would be convened by the committee.
- (6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitioners in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Club.
- (7) The committee may impose a levy on members of the Club at any special general meeting providing that three quarters of the members present who are eligible to vote, vote in favour of such levy.

14. Notices of general meetings

At least 14 days before the day on which a general meeting of the Club is to be held, the public officer of the Club is to publish in at least one newspaper circulating in Tasmania an advertisement specifying -

- (a) the place, day and time at which the meeting is to be held; and
- (b) the nature of the business that is to be transacted at the meeting.

15. Business and quorum at general meetings

- (1) All business transacted at a general meeting, other than the ordinary business of an annual general meeting, is special business.
- (2) Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members of the Club entitled to vote is present at the time the meeting considers that business.
- (3) A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is 15 members of the Club entitled to vote.
- (4) If a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting -
 - (a) if convened on the requisition of members of the Club is dissolved; or
 - (b) if convened by the committee, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and -
 - (i) at the same place; or
 - (ii) at any other place specified by the chairperson -
 - (A) at the time of the adjournment; or
 - (B) by notice in a manner determined by the chairperson.
- (5) If at an adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

16. Chairperson at general meetings

- At each general meeting of the Club, the chairperson is to be -
- (a) the president; or
 - (b) in the absence of the president, the vice-president; or
 - (c) in the absence of the president and the vice-president, the deputy vice-president; or
 - (d) in the absence of the president and both vice-presidents, a member of the Club elected to preside as chairperson by the members of the Club present and entitled to vote at the general meeting.

17. Adjournment of general meetings

- (1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn the meeting with the consent of the members of the Club who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (2) If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

(3) If a meeting is adjourned for less than 14 days, it is not necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

18. Determination of questions arising at general meetings

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Club is to be determined on a show of hands.

(2) A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been lost or carried, or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority, together with an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Club, is evidence of that fact unless a poll is demanded on or before that declaration.

19. Votes

(1) On any question arising at a general meeting of the Club, a member of the Club (including the chairperson) has one vote only.

(2) All votes are to be given personally.

(3) Despite sub-rule (1), in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson has a second or casting vote.

20. Taking of poll

If at a general meeting a poll on any question is demanded -

(a) the poll is to be taken at that meeting in the manner the chairperson determines;
and

(b) the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

21. When poll to be taken

(1) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.

(2) A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson determines.

22. Affairs of Club to be managed by a Committee

(1) The affairs of the Club are to be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 24.

(2) The committee -

- (a) is to control and manage the business and affairs of the Club; and
- (b) may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Club, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised and performed by members of the Club at a general meeting; and
- (c) has power to do anything that appears to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Club.
- (d) must appoint a person to be the public officer for the Club.
 - (i) The public officer may hold a position on the committee.
 - (ii) The position of public officer must not remain vacant for a period exceeding 14 days.
 - (iii) The Commissioner must be notified within 14 days of a change of public officer and of any change of address of the public officer.
- (e) may from time to time make, amend or repeal by-laws, not inconsistent with these Rules, for the proper management of the Club and its members.
 - (i) A record of the current By-Laws shall be made available to any member upon request
 - (ii) Any By-Laws may be set aside by a General Meeting of members.
 - (iii) The committee shall take whatever action it deems to be appropriate in relation to a breach of a By-law made under the authority of these Rules.

23. Officers of the Club

- (1) The officers of the Club are as follows:
 - (a) one President;
 - (b) one Vice-President;
 - (c) one Deputy Vice-President;
 - (d) one Treasurer;
 - (e) one Secretary.
 - (f) one Captain
